Britain Seeks To Give Burden Of Greece To U.S.

Wants To Withdraw Military Forces From Greece And Hand Burden To U. S.

CLAIM PROPOSAL BEING DISCUSSED

By CHARLES A. SMITH
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The British government today disclosed a desire to withdraw its military forces from Greece and hand the burden over to the United States.

A foreign office spokesman admitted that while no decision yet has been reached, Britain would like to pull its armed forces out of the Balkan peninsula.

U. S. Approached

It was established earlier that approaches had been made to the United States to assume an increased share of the costs of maintaining an army in Greece because of Britain's perilous financial and economic situation at home, coupled with a manpower shortage.

The spokesman pointed out that the present situation inside Greece—a nation wracked by virtual civil war—is not sufficiently stable to warrant British troops leaving without notice and trusting in the Greek army to control the situation.

Questioned as to whether Britain therefore is aiming at an American occupation force or a joint Anglo-American military control, the spokesman said:

"Discussions are proceeding. I cannot say more."

The spokesman emphasized the recent Anglo-American discussions.

Frohner To Die; Chapman Gets Life In Prison

(BULLETIN)

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 28.—(INS)—Don Frohner, 16-year-old Youngstown boy, was sentenced today to die for the first-degree murder of William C. Spieth, 32, Ash-tabula salesman, last January 13.

His companion in the hitch-hike slaying, Arthur Ned Chapman, also 16, was sentenced to life imprisonment by a three-judge panel hearing the case in Mahoning County Common Pleas Court.

After hearing testimony for four days, Judges David G. Jenkins, Harold B. Doyle and Erskine Mendenhall, Jr., handed down their sentences. The boys pleaded guilty to shooting Spieth in the head when he resisted their attempt to steal his car.

PA NEW OBSERVES

New Castleites will watch with eager interest the arrival of March, 31, tomorrow, to determine whether its advent is of the lion or lamb order. Indications today were that the arrival would be rather lamb-like.

February will see another birth record established at the Jameson Memorial hospital, 110 birth having already been recorded, with a few more hours to go. The largest number of births during the month of February, previously being 77, which was recorded in 1943.

Apparently the groundhog is convinced it is not necessary to spend the entire six weeks period from February 2, in his underground home. Owen P. Fox, city forester, received a report today that a local man had captured a groundhog yesterday, that came out to survey the atmospheric situation.

Mexico City Eagerly Awaits Truman's Visit

By RICHARD ARMSTRONG
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 28.—(INS)—President Truman's arrival in Mexico City is eagerly awaited by Mexican political, economic and industrial leaders.

A consensus showed today—rightly or wrongly—a tendency to regard the forthcoming visit of the American President as the beginning of the remedy if not the "cure-all" for a variety of problems plaguing the nation.

Foremost among them is the serious "hoof and mouth" disease that has been plaguing Mexico's cattle industry.

President Miguel Aleman, describing the problem as "the most acute in my administration", has warned that its effects also threaten the United States and therefore should be of concern to the American President.

Will Return Visit

Aleman revealed that he will return Truman's visit with a plane trip to New York and Washington probably during the latter half of April. It is expected Aleman will follow up the discussions he will have with Truman in Mexico City after the latter's arrival Monday.

President Truman's visit also is regarded as important from the industrial standpoint.

E. S. RUPP MAKES CHIEF ADDRESS

"Every employee a salesman might well have been the slogan of the 13th annual dinner meeting of the C.T.P. of the B. & O. R. R. Thursday night in the Cathedral dining room. And, if you don't know, the C.T.P. is the Co-Operative Traffic Program of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, an organization which includes everybody from the president down to the newest office boy, and as for its purpose the promotion of business for—guess who—the Baltimore & Ohio.

During the war the dinners were abandoned and last night's was the beginning of the postwar era of the C.T.P. About 475 were present to enjoy a good dinner, to hear a short period of speaking and to have a lot of fun dancing the balance of the evening. Open Civil War In China Soon

China's Central Government Breaks Off Remaining Relations With Communist Regime

(BULLETIN)

NANKING, Feb. 28.—(INS)—China's central government broke off all remaining relations with the Chinese Communist regime today by ordering the Red liaison offices in Nationalist territory closed within the next six days.

The move was interpreted by veteran observers as meaning that from next Wednesday, March 5, a state of open civil war will exist in China, with no hopes of restoring peace in the foreseeable future. The Communists had announced their intention of keeping their liaison offices in Nanking, Chungking and presumably Shanghai, open in order, as they phrased it, "to show that we are unwilling finally to close the door on negotiations."

Porter Is Killed As Pullman Car Takes Wild Dash

Car Breaks Loose From Train Near Gallitzin And Crashes Into Mountainside

THIRTEEN PERSONS REPORTED INJURED

GALLITZIN, Pa., Feb. 28.—(INS)—A loose, wildly careening pullman car of the Pennsylvania railroad's Sunshine Special crashed into a mountainside near Gallitzin today, killing a porter and injuring 13 other persons, including a crew member.

The car, "Cascade Mirage," broke loose from the train at the top of the mountain. It ended its wild, three-and-a-half-mile flight down the mountainside by jumping the tracks at "Curve 109" and plunging into an embankment.

Mile From Wreck Scene

The accident occurred a mile from Bennington curve where, ten days ago, the Pennsylvania's Red Arrow plunged over an embankment, killing 24 persons and injuring 126.

The runaway car sped through mile-long Gallitzin tunnel before leaving the rails.

All the way, the fatally injured, Lee Keys, 58, of Houston, Tex., and Gazman Edward J. Mulvehill, 46, of Pittsburgh, battled the handbrakes in an effort to halt the speeding sleeper.

Mulvehill shouted to the 12 passengers, asleep in their berths, to lie on the floor of the car to avoid being thrown about if it crashed.

His action probably prevented serious injury to any of them.

Keys was on the rear platform of the car when it crashed into the embankment. His body had to be cut from the smashed vestibule with acetylene torches.

Man Is Badly Burned While Starting Fire

Albert Vernon Geiger, aged 54 years, of Shenango township, was critically burned about 4:30 o'clock this morning, when kerosene oil, with which he was attempting to start a fire in a shanty at the Emerson Reno coal mine, on the Old Pittsburgh road, three miles south of New Castle, exploded, enveloping him in flames.

Geiger, his clothing ablaze, staggered from the shanty and attempted to extinguish his blazing clothing by rolling in the snow, but his clothes were burned from his body. He was not fully clothed when the blast occurred. His plight was not discovered until workmen reported for duty at the mine about two hours later.

An ambulance was summoned and he was taken to the New Castle hospital, where it was stated that his condition is critical. The shanty, in which the explosion occurred, was burned to the ground.

BELGIUM BANS DEMONSTRATION

Expect Hoover To Give Support To Truman's Plea

Former President Hoover Says Further Relief Needed In War-Devastated Countries

MAKES REPORT TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN

By JAMES LEE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Herbert Hoover urged Congress today to appropriate the $50 million dollars asked by President Truman for additional overseas relief, but said repayment should be obligatory.

The Republican former president appeared before the House foreign affairs committee and declared America has "no desire to fail to do our full part in alleviating the starvation of women and children."

Hoover warned, however, that "at some point American patience is likely to become exhausted."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Former President Herbert Hoover took before Congress today his plea for further relief to the starving millions of war-devastated Germany and Austria.

Hoover, whose first report to President Truman on his economic mission to ravaged Central Europe was made public last night, was scheduled to testify before the House Foreign Affairs committee.

See Support For Truman
The testimony of the man whose supervision of Belgian relief after World War I earned him the sobriquet "great humanitarian" was expected to support Mr. Truman's request for an additional $50 million dollars for relief of war-torn nations.

The Hoover report urged a $51 million dollar program of supplies.

Fighter Plane Makes Honolulu To New York Hop

New World's Record For Sustained Flight By Fighter Plane

TRIP IS MADE IN 14 HOURS; 32 MINUTES

By BOB CONSIDINE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—

The army air force P-52 "Betty Jo" established a new world's record for sustained flight by a fighter plane today when it streaked from Honolulu to New York.

The official flying time was 14 hours and 32 minutes.

Piloted by Lieut. Col. Robert Thacker, of El Centro, Calif., with First Lieut. John M. Ard, of Inglewood, Calif., sitting in the plane's second fuselage, the remarkable craft negotiated the 5,000 miles at speeds well beyond 300 miles per hour.

Few Gallons Of Gas Left

The plane landed with only a few gallons left of the 2,250 gallons of gas it lifted into the air at Honolulu late yesterday afternoon.

Hundreds of spectators, newsmen and cameramen, and the wives of the two young fliers, were on hand at LaGuardia field to cheer the completion of the mission.

The P-52 is the only propeller-driven fighter craft now being made for the army air forces.

It is a Siamese-twin version of the famous North American P-51 Mustang, one of the air force planes with its normal armament consisting of rockets and machineguns that has the fire power of a light cruiser's broadside.

Col. Thacker had planned to drop his four auxiliary wing tanks, too

Britain Offers Bonus To Miners

Seeks To Spur Coal Production—Electric Power Is Still Curtailed

LONDON, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee said today that it still is impossible for the British government to set a date for resumption of electric power to industry in southeast England.

Attlee told the House of Commons that five of 27 generating stations in the southeast still have less than two weeks supply of coal.

Provide Bonus

As inducements for harder work to mine more coal, an agreement was reached to provide the miners with extra food. Mining areas also will be given priority in the erection of aluminum houses.

The agreement was reached at a special meeting of the government coal committee and leaders of the miners union. The food bonus calls for more sugar, fats, oils and tinned meats.

A deputation of miners announced in return that it would give the government fullest cooperation in attempts to achieve a coal production in 1947 of 200 million tons.

INFANT MORTALITY LOWER

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Infant mortality hit an all-time low in Pittsburgh during 1946, it was disclosed today by the department of health.

At the same time, the highest birth rate in 71 years was recorded. There were but 664 infant deaths during the year, compared with 22,168 births—a mortality rate of 29.2. The number of births, compared with the population, gave the city a rate of 31.9 per 1000.

And he melted the ice in a spot or two, and the sidewalks were nearly bare, perhaps he'll relent and smile down some more and the weather turn passing fair.

Fathers And Sons Gather At Union

Approximately 250 Attend Banquet Event At Union High Last Night

Enthusiasm was rampant at Union High school Thursday evening, when approximately 250 fathers and sons gathered in the school dining hall for the annual Fathers-Sons banquet which was given under the sponsorship of the Union High Hi-Y club.

Entering the dining hall, the banqueters were greeted with a scene laid out with patriotic colors emphasizing the fact of so many notable Americans being born in the month of February. Losing no time in getting the program under way, Miss Betty Robison, school music director, led the group in singing the national anthem, after which David Gatrall, boys director of the Y.M.C.A., pronounced the invocation.

J. Arthur Turek, supervising principal of the Union township schools, took over as master of ceremonies. A toast was made to the sons by Daniel Radabaugh, while his son, Ted, responded very fittingly with the toast to the fathers.

Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, interim pastor of First Presbyterian church, and former president of Westminster college, in his finest form, stressed the importance of the father in the home and his relationship to his sons. He pointed out that it was the duty of every "dad" to be a pal to his son. More companionship in the home between parents and children was one of the main points emphasized by Dr. Galbreath in combating juvenile delinquency.

Program Presented
Preceding the address of the evening, an excellent program was presented which included numbers by the girls ensemble; Hawaiian electric guitar solo by Ruth Sheeler; boys octet; baritone horn solo by Bob Stoughten; tenor solo by Melvin Kauffman; duet, Leona and Wilma Heckart; piano solo by Robert Rudessil and soprano solo by Gladys Grittle.

Special guests of the evening were J. C. Syling, county superintendent of schools; Roy F. Conway, assistant superintendent, and David Gatrall, of the Y.M.C.A. All spoke briefly urging the Hi-Y to continue their efforts in coming years.

Awards were presented during the evening as follows: Oldest father, Sherman Appell; youngest father, Eugene Rudessil; father and son's ages totaling highest years, Sherman and William Appell; father and son's ages totaling least number of years, Charles Morris and son; most sons, L. G. Rudessil with five sons, and largest waistline, Frank Conti.

The dinner was served by the Union P.T.A. with Mrs. Ed. Donley as general chairman. She was presented with a bouquet from the Hi-Y club. Mrs. Mike Bowden was in charge of the kitchen, while Mrs. Loyal Daugherty supervised the dining room. Much credit for the success of the banquet goes to Bob Cowher of the school's Hi-Y club and the members of the club who worked untiringly in preparation for the affair.

the section establishing a one-year statute of limitations during which employees could file suits for recovery of wages, overtime pay and damages under the fair labor standards act.

Strong support was present for increasing the time to two years, making it identical with the statute of limitations included in a similar Senate portal bill. The Senate measure was expected to come up for consideration next week.

Under existing law, there is no federal statute of limitations, this being left entirely to the states, where it varies to as high as six years. Wage and Hour Administrator Walling has recommended that it be set at three years.

mentary exports to vanquished and hungry Germany to alleviate the grim effects of starvation diet in the British and American occupation zones.

Following release of the Hoover report Secretary of War Patterson announced his department is prepared, subject to presidential approval, "to utilize all funds appropriated to it for food and relief in occupied Germany in carrying out Mr. Hoover's program."

At Lowest Level
The ex-president declared that in the lack of the necessities of life Germans "have been sunk to a lowest level known in a hundred years of western history."

He stressed the widespread starvation of children, the "appalling" increase in deaths among the aged, and the general loss of weight, vitality and ability to work in the German population.

Hoover pointed out that in the age groups between 20 and 40 there are six men to 10 women, and in the age groups between 40 and 60, about seven men to 10 women. He added:

"Thus there are in these groups between six and seven million more women than men."

"The results upon productive power are bad enough, but the consequence to morals are appalling."

He described the housing situation in the two zones as "the worst that modern civilization has ever seen."

Hoover said the cost of the relief program he recommended must be borne equally by the United States and Great Britain.

He explained that the program was designed to cover the rest of the current fiscal year and the fiscal year ending July 1, 1948.

in the Pacific and two near Laramie, Wyo. The plane landed, however, at LaGuardia field with three still attached.

Greeted By Wives
Thacker, still wearing his "Mae West" and oxygen mask, pushed back the plastic cowl of the P-52 as he brought it to a stop, and grinned broadly at the crowd.

Looking down into the mob, he suddenly shouted "hey, make room there, that's my wife."

Simultaneously, Lieut. Ard jumped out on his wing and yelled "hi" when he too spotted his wife.

The history-making flight did not interfere with the gallantry of the two fliers. They had brought orchids and Hawaiian leis as gifts for their wives.

Tail-Wind Helped
A spanking tail-wind helped the speed of the plane throughout the night as it swept across the largest open water area on the earth between Honolulu and the California coast, in seven hours and one minute.

Their route thereafter traversed Bangor, Me.; Ogdun, Utah; Book Springs, Wyo.; Sioux City, Ia.; Rockford, Ill.; Windsor, Ont.; Erie, Pa.; and Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

They appeared over Erie at 10:31 a. m. EST, at which time they announced that their speed, which had been as high as 420 miles per hour, was being pulled back to 350 to conserve fuel. The average speed was 375 miles an hour.

Nearly 1250 gallons of the entire gas load of nearly seven tons were carried externally.

The entire flight was made on oxygen.

evening. At the table with him were the speakers of the evening and representatives of every department of the road and every labor union represented on the Akron-Chicago division. Special guests were C. T. Williams of Akron, O., division superintendent, and Mrs. I. M. De-Ville, field editor of the B. & O. magazine.

During the service of the dinner Mario Savelli entertained with accordion numbers. The invocation was offered by Rev. F. C. Streiff, pastor of St. Joseph's church. Major Garrigus then introduced C. J. Roessel, division freight agent of Youngstown, who was the toastmaster of the evening. The guests at the speakers' table were introduced and given a hand.

First Speaker
C. N. Fullerton, representative of the CTP from Baltimore, Md., was the first speaker and told of the importance of every employee being a part of the CTP plan. "Our jobs depend upon the business the road does," said Mr. Fullerton, "and any time we aid in increasing the business we are aiding ourselves."

E. S. Rupp, assistant to the general manager in Pittsburgh, was the principal speaker. "During the war all railroad facilities were taxed," said he, "and revenues were off and it is up to all of us to aid in bringing them back to a point where we all make money."

Competing Transportation
"Today we have a number of competing forms of transportation. Already air transport is cutting into railroad revenues. Twelve refrigerators are shipped from Dayton to Milwaukee by air, a fine race horse is shipped from Florida to California by air, these are but two examples. In addition we have the threat of more canals. In this district there are people who would canalize the Beaver river and take the canal on to Lake Erie. Others would make a seaway of the St. Lawrence river. Both of them would be done at public expense but the loss would be private and you people would be among those first and heaviest to lose."

Mr. Rupp expressed his appreciation of the excellent crowd present and urged the group to continue the good work. The program was followed by dancing and cards.

One man present who took no public bows for his work, but who rated them was Ralph Audino, the secretary and treasurer of the CTP group. He was the executive officer in arranging the dinner, seeing that the tickets were disposed of and that the schedule went off as planned. It did, thanks to Mr. Audino and his efficient colleagues.

He was pressed for an exact definition of "existing liabilities."

First, the spokesman called attention to economic and financial liabilities, with particular reference to the present hard winter, fuel shortages, enforced cuts in light and power and the manpower shortage.

Finally he said bluntly: "Britain would also like to pull out its armed forces from Greece."

No Comment At White House
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(INS)—The White House was non-committal today in the face of a disclosure in London that Great Britain has asked the United States to take over occupation of Greece.

A British foreign office spokesman revealed that his government desires to withdraw British troops from the Balkan trouble spot and hand the burden to the United States.

A White House spokesman said he knew nothing of such reports, but he did not deny them.

SENATE LEADERS PLAN MOVES TO AID TAX CUT

would jeopardize the tax cut program. He said:

"I might amend my proposal to permit more than one billion being paid on the debt."

Congressional tax authorities indicated the Bridges approach, while salvaging tax reductions, would kill the 20 per cent "across the board" tax cut advocated by such Republicans as Rep. Knutson (R) Minn. House ways and means chairman.

Taft and others insisting that tax cuts "come first" have estimated they would need three and one half billion dollars of an expected six billion surplus to accomplish the 20 percent slash.

Knutson took the position that the Knowland amendment would "rule out" the Republican tax reduction program.

The Bridges plan, in effect, would either force an across the board cut of less than 20 percent or graduated tax reductions. Bridges himself has gone on record in opposition to the "across the board" 20 percent idea.

Senate leaders hoped that the issue could be disposed of today. But every sign pointed to a hot fight, with Democrats virtually in solid support of Knowland and from 15 to 20 Republicans lined up with him.

Miss A. A. Montgomery entertained Thursday evening at her home, 854 Vogan avenue, a group of friends as the medium of announcing plans for her forthcoming marriage.

Games furnished entertainment during the earlier part of the evening with prizes awarded to Mrs. John Jenny and Miss Betty Sumner.

Invited to the dining room, guests found at a table decorated in yellow and white and centered by a toy locomotive surrounded by flowers, their places marked by drawings of freight cars in yellow and white. On these they found the announcement "Aleta and Norman, 4-17-47".

Aides in serving were Mrs. V. E. Montgomery, Mrs. N. A. Peck of Girard, O., Mrs. S. E. Hague and Mrs. L. A. Hemphill.

Miss Montgomery, daughter of Mrs. V. E. Montgomery, of 854 Vogan avenue, and the late Mr. Montgomery, will be married at a quiet wedding on April 17 to Norman A. Peck, son of Mrs. N. A. Peck of Girard, O., and the late Mr. Peck. She is employed as supervising draftsman at the Bell Telephone company and Mr. Peck is employed as a clerk for the New York Central Railroad in Youngstown.

Charles Krause was best man.

Following the ceremony an open house reception was held at the bride's home with 100 guests attending. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Mrs. David Evans, Miss Evelyn Love and Miss Betty Heckathorne.

The newlyweds departed on a wedding trip to an unknown destination. On return they will reside at the bride's home.

CO-WORKERS FETE MISS JEAN ALLEN

Another of a series of lovely showers honoring Miss Jean Allen, bride-elect of March 11, was given by her co-workers of the Johnson Bronze Accounting Department on Thursday evening. The shower took place in the employees recreation hall on South Mill street. The hall was gayly decorated with pink and blue streamers and covered umbrellas were used as ceiling decorations.

Miniature umbrella favors marked each place setting revealing "Jean and Gomer, March 11". A verse written on the reverse side of two of the favors decided the door prize and booty prize winners with Miss Eleanor Warnock receiving the door prize and Mrs. Donzella Herman winning another prize.

During the evening, records were enjoyed and an original "Let's Get Acquainted" game written by two of the hostesses, Miss Julia Terranova and Miss Alice Reynolds, was played by the guests. The game consisted of riddles in the form of rhymes about office employees.

Later in the evening Miss Allen began a treasure hunt tour in order to obtain her many lovely gifts. Rhymes containing clues which revealed where the next gift would be found were written on heart-shaped cards which were attached to each gift.

A dainty lunch was served by candlelight by the hostesses with Miss Maryann Melcer in charge. Hostesses were Maryann Melcer, Julia Terranova, Alice Reynolds, Gloria Mastropietro, Marie Veronesi, Bessie Davison, Mrs. Ruth Robison, Dorothy Letera, Ruth Paulini, Mrs. Joan McKee, Betty Bodinski, Helen Glenn, Mrs. Helen Henderson, Doris Krepps and Helen Swarney.

Pictures were taken during the evening by Henry Gunther of the advertising department.

Miss Allen will be married Tuesday, March 11, in the Highland U.P. church at 7:30 p.m. to Gomer Lewis, of 1204 East Washington street.

The Wrong Way

We can think of no quicker way to swing public sentiment against school teachers than for the teachers to strike. Whether it is for better salaries or anything else, it is our opinion that school teachers have no moral right to strike.

This opinion is based upon several reasons. First, a school teacher contracts to perform certain duties for a certain period of time at a certain specified compensation.

Second, the idea of striking against a contractual agreement may very easily influence young minds that when a contract does not suit, the way to get a new one is to break the old one.

Third, if teachers believe, as we believe, that their calling is something on a different plane than making steel or automobiles or digging ditches, then their duty is to remain with the youngsters until their contract expires.

Just now there are several school teacher strikes on. We are not familiar with the New York state law and have no intention of discussing that situation. We do know something of the Pennsylvania law. Under the school code a teacher, once signed to a permanent contract, has a guaranteed position for life, save for immorality, insubordination or incompetence.

Hardly a person but will agree that teachers salaries are inadequate under the present cost of living. Nor is there a person cognizant of what is going on but believes that the present General Assembly will adjust those salaries upward.

Pennsylvania school directors are hampered by law in their expenditures. The only time an increase can be made to teachers during a term is where a balance in the instructional budget exists. In New Castle there was a balance, not a large one, and the local board granted the teachers as much cost of living bonus as it was legally possible to do.

To the credit of the New Castle public school teachers they realized the legal restrictions under which the board operated and while they were not satisfied with the bonus payment, they are living up to their contracts and they are adhering to the high traditions of the teaching profession. Their co-operation in this matter is something that should weigh in their favor in the adjustment of contracts.

Unfortunately teachers in other systems are either devoid of wise leadership or are themselves not capable of the high responsibility which is theirs.

A school teachers' strike, carried out on a general scale would undoubtedly result in the abrogation of the tenure act, and abolition of retirement features, and the destruction of other safeguards which have been thrown around the profession.

It is true that teachers are temporarily embarrassed by the rising cost of living and inadequate salary schedules. These we hope, and indeed we feel very sure will be rectified shortly. But the wrong way to correct them is to use the strike weapon.

Safety Or Airports?

Alarmed by the large number of airplane crashes, the Senate Commerce committee has made a drastic proposal. It suggests that Congress call a halt on all federal spending for new airports until modern safety aids are installed at existing major terminals. Specifically, the committee's plan calls for reallocation of the $45,000,000 voted for new airport construction last year and using it to purchase radar, lighting and fog-dispersal apparatus.

The suggestion has its points, but it is doubtful whether it will appeal to Congress, to the communities agitating for federal funds for new airports, or to the aviation industry generally. Most of these towns and cities have been waiting for a long time for air service. They will be outraged by the suggestion that all the money available is to be spent on cities which already enjoy the services of several airlines.

It could be argued, with some logic, that every additional airport is a safety measure because it provides one more spot where a plane in trouble can land. But the main objection to the committee's proposal is that it hardly seems fair to the 800 localities where the Civil Aeronautics Administration had planned to start airport work this year on a 50-50 financing basis with state and local governments.

The choice thus narrows down to limited air service for many communities or all-weather service for a handful of big city terminals. It is only on flights carried on despite indications of bad weather that elaborate safety devices are needed.

Standards For Safety

The New York State Automobile Association has made a number of suggestions for legislation to promote improved highway safety. Included are recommendations for modern safety features on all new cars to meet certain standards.

For example, the association urges legislation standardizing the height of bumpers, both front and rear, not only for passenger cars but for trucks and trailers. It also would require all cars to be equipped with automatic windshield defrosters and automatic turn-signal lights.

In principle the merit of these recommendations is obvious. Bumpers are of little use if they do not correspond in height. Windshield wipers are necessary on all vehicles, but in some states in winter they are useless unless aided by defrosters. And automatic turn-signal lights will work when drivers are too careless or lazy to put an arm out a window.

In practice these undoubtedly will be considerable difficulty in putting these suggested requirements into effect and some opposition to them on grounds of expense, but there is no doubt as to their eventual desirability.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by MARQUIS CHILDS

Significant Step Taken By CIO Heads

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—Meeting here in executive session, the top officers of the CIO took a significant step the other day. They voted to prohibit any CIO official or CIO union from becoming part of either of the two liberal organizations recently formed.

While it was not at first apparent, even to some who attended the meeting, this represents an important victory for the extreme left in the CIO. It will be interpreted as a triumph for those who follow the Communist line.

May Be Tactical Error
The decision must be ratified by the CIO policy board, which meets March 13. Strenuous efforts are now being made to persuade Philip Murray that the move is a tactical error.

Why this will be interpreted as a Communist victory is clear when you see what the effect of the decision would be. Among the backers of American for Democratic Action, which does not admit Communists to membership, are several top CIO officers, including John Green of the Shipbuilders and Walter Reuther of the Auto Workers. Unless the decision of the other day is reversed, they will have to withdraw.

The other organization, the Progressive Citizens of America, which admits Communists to membership, has only one CIO sponsor. That is Jack Kroll, a vice-president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers.

Thus, by getting Murray to agree to pull out of both organizations, the left-wingers will take away an important element of support from A.D.A. The CIO will, in effect, be announcing to the world that it refuses support to any organization which does not take in Communists. The order will have no effect on PCA, which has had virtually no union support.

Strange Decision
This is a strange decision to take at a moment when the question of trade-union objectives is so much to the fore. It can be argued, of course, that it tends to take the CIO out of politics. But that argument is invalidated when one examines the net result of the move, which is to weaken a Liberal-Progressive group favoring political action free of Communist intrigue.

The motives of those who backed this decision are varied, as is always true in such matters. Defending the step after it was agreed to, one CIO leader had this to say: "I was in Europe recently and I discovered over there that if you were not a Communist, you were a Fascist. The way I figure it, we can't exclude the Communists here in America."

Among those who want to pull out of A.D.A. jealously between CIO and AFL unions is also a motive. A prominent backer of A.D.A. is David Dubinsky, who has anchored the International Ladies Garment Workers Union securely in the AFL. The CIO Amalgamated Clothing Workers is an ever watchful rival of the ILGWU.

Representatives of these two unions would have difficulty working together in any organization, even one with the broad objectives of A.D.A. This fact points out the remoteness of any working agreement between CIO and AFL, although in the face of Congressional hostility they have good reason to unite.

Helped To Form ADA
Dubinsky and other AFL leaders who helped to form A.D.A. have given every indication of staying with it. Their active and continuing support would tend to make the organization an A.D.A. adjunct and therefore limit its usefulness.

The decision of the CIO vice-presidents, if it is finally approved, will delight conservatives and reactionaries who have been busy belittling the new group and its potentialities. They will welcome any move that splits progressives and labor still further on the Communist issue.

It was that kind of quarrel which helped prepare the way for Nazism in pre-Hitler Germany. The German Communists believed a Nazi dictatorship was an inevitable step toward a proletarian revolution and then a Communist dictatorship.

Before they fought the Social Democrats who believed in change by democratic means.

The earnest men and women who formed A.D.A. want to achieve their objective of a better life for all Americans through the democratic process. They know that Communist tactics almost invariably mean distrust and division.

Philip Murray feels the same way about Communism, and with good reason, for he has seen the currents and cross-currents they set up in his own organization. But often in the past he has compromised and this would seem to be another such compromise.

Statement: "Red-Cross Sold Cigarettes".
Answer: This is not true. The sale of cigarettes is a violation of Red-Cross policy and the Bureau of Internal Revenue regulations. There were instances, however, where servicemen paid for tax-exempt cigarettes carrying the name of Red Cross. Such a situation may have come about through confusion of Red-Cross supplies with Army Post exchange supplies. In the shipping and sorting of great quantities of overseas material, Red-Cross cigarettes were sometimes taken to the Post Exchange and Army cigarettes were accidentally acquired by Red-Cross. Thus a serviceman could have purchased cigarettes bearing the Red-Cross emblem. One case is known where a Field Director spent two days trying to identify and track down all the men who had purchased Red-Cross cigarettes in this way in order to give each a package of free cigarettes.

NOTE: THE AMERICAN RED CROSS INVITES SPECIFIC EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT OF ANY ALLEGATION THAT RED-CROSS PERSONNEL SOLD CIGARETTES. THE ORGANIZATION WILL TAKE IMMEDIATE STEPS TO DEAL VIGOROUSLY WITH SUCH SITUATIONS.

I don't know who's crazier... the people who ran up the price again at the stock yards or the people who bought.

But I do know that somebody hasn't been reading the law of supply and demand... and if there's one thing there isn't any demand for it's high priced pork.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

I don't usually read the etiquette columns or other to me a fork is still a fork and I don't care whether it is bad manners to cut your lettuce and your asparagus with a knife—I do it anyway, because it's easier to eat.

Personally I think it looks much better if you eat a stalk of asparagus bite by bite rather than try to suck it into your mouth with but-ter. I have never yet been able to approach a rabbit's agility in man-eating lettuce, whether I eat it properly or improperly.

However, that is neither here nor there. I must tell you about what I read when I accidentally glanced over one of those etiquette columns. If you understand what it is all about, I wish you'd write and tell me I don't get it.

According to the article, a hostess asked "When we have no one to wait on table and my husband carves, serves and then passes the plates, how should these plates be passed? For example, who should be served first when there are six or eight at the table?"

My answer would have been simple. "Have a buffet supper." I would have said, but then I don't know anything about etiquette. Not so the authority on manners, however.

To her this was an extremely serious subject. This was her advice: "If there are six at the table, two men and two women in addition to your husband and yourself, and your husband is carving, he puts the first plate down in front of the lady on his right and tells her to keep it."

"Then he does the same thing for the lady on his left, also telling her to keep it."

er to keep it. Unless the table is unusually long and he is seated, he can hand the third plate across to the gentleman who is seated on your right.

"He, in turn, should hand this plate to you, your husband handing him a second plate for himself. "Next, your husband hands the fifth plate to the gentleman on your left and then serves himself."

If there were only ladies at the table, then the second one on his left should be told to keep her plate, the one on your left receiving the fourth plate, also asked to keep this.

"Your husband could reach only across a small table that had a low centerpiece to give you the fifth plate. Otherwise there would be no avoiding passing it to you from hand to hand."

Is that all clear now? If not, you can either get yourself a good book on mathematics or serve frankfurters.

(And, by the way, the above is one of the reasons why my wife and I always try to take our friends to a restaurant when we have more than two guests for dinner.)

State Police Say:—Whether or not your rear lights are burning may mean the difference between safety and a very serious accident. At this time of year sudden snow storms or fog may render your car invisible until the other car is too close to stop. If you use fog lights, be sure they are connected so that the red lights show to the rear. Check all lights on your car before going out onto the highway during the hours of darkness.

Again the American Red Cross... during the war there was a lot of talk by servicemen and women concerning the Red Cross... some of the questions asked by service personnel were collected... and with answers to these questions now present the story.

Veterans say... "Red Cross charged for food and lodging in overseas clubs". Answer: Yes, it did, but at the request of the Army. Red Cross charged for food, lodging, barber and valet services in stationary installations but did not charge in mobile facilities (Clubmobiles, etc.). Small charges for food and lodging overseas were no new departure. In both wars Red Cross made nominal charges for food and lodging at the request of the military authorities. The official War department recommendation was made in a letter dated May 20, 1942, written by Mr. Stimson, secretary of war, and addressed to the National chairman of the American Red Cross.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

WHEN CHILD LAGS AT SCHOOL

For various reasons not nearly always understood, some children lag at school in all subjects. Some other children, however, may lag in only one or two subjects, doing moderate or excellent work in one or more others.

A certain mother writes that her daughter eight years old does very well at spelling but lags in reading and arithmetic. It is pretty safe to assume that any child who does well in any one of the usual school subjects can, under proper guidance, also enjoy success in the other basal subjects. Barring cases of impaired hearing or vision, special disability at learning is more or less a myth. The mother writes as follows:

"Dear Dr. Myers: My daughter eight years old does very well in her spelling without any help at home. And, although she brings home pretty good grades on her report card, she does not seem able to read well or do her number work correctly at home. The main problem seems to be that she cannot remember words. After telling her a word at the beginning of the page, if she has that same word in the middle of the page she often cannot remember it. When her daddy hears her lessons he has used the stick or a good slap to make her remember it."

Doesn't Know Numbers
"She just doesn't seem to know her numbers and can't seem to figure them out. Recently I have tried to help her with dominoes. But when we go to play with them she asks whether we can't play some game in which we don't have to figure. After she studies, say for twenty minutes, she acts as if her mind gets tired and she can't think any more."

In about this fashion, I answered her. It is highly probable that your child learns better at school than at home and that she would be better off if you and dad quit bothering her with her lessons at home. Who else could remember words or numbers when trying to learn them under constant dread of a whack with a stick or a lash with an angry tongue?

Must Feel Calm
A child must feel calm, secure and comfortable in order to learn well. I do wish that both of you parents would stay away from that child at her lessons when you cannot be kind and patient. I discuss this matter quite at length in my bulletin, "Parents and the Child's Home Work," which I enclose and which anyone else may have in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

Whereas the use of dominoes might have been very helpful to this child when she was learning the meaning of the numbers up to ten, she needs now to get away from counting as she adds or subtracts, therefore, to learn the few basic addition and subtraction facts by heart. In the enclosed bulletin on "arithmetic" all this is explained at length. As with home helps on reading and spelling, it may be had in a stamped addressed envelope.

The main thing for us parents to remember when we help a child at his lessons is that we must discipline ourselves always to be calm and patient so as to inspire the young learner with hope and self-confidence. Read some to that child daily. Give her materials to read that appeal to her through good pictures which give fascinating meaning to the sentences, phrases and words.

A CERTAIN COOK

Clubs must have a pastry cook, And one to broil the steak. Hotels insist a specialist Whatever's served must make. There's one for soup and one for rolls.

For coffee and for tea, But best of all the cook, I'd call, Who got the meals for me.

She made the soup and made the pies And set the table, too. She had the skill, and had the will For all a cook must do. Her kitchen shone with tender care, Well stocked her pantry shelf. From soup to cake the meal she'd make And did it all herself.

We seldom see the master chef Or him who bakes the pies, But I could look upon our cook And lovedly were her eyes. For always at the table's head She sat and smiled at me. But now 'tis mine alone to dine And live with memory.

Congress Really Streamlined? Newsmen Have Doubt Committee Meetings Keep Reporters On The Double Reveal Senator Shot Up Coconuts

(Special To Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—After six weeks of the streamlined Congress, Capitol Hill observers are debating how much is really streamlined.

On the critical side, harried newsmen are finding that they have more committee hearings to cover than ever. They are wondering if the new high-powered committee staffs are not the reason—showing more speed than usual in arranging committee hearings.

Thus, some say, committee work is not reduced—it is only redistributed. On the other side of the ledger, there seems to be a saving of legislative manpower—fewer lawmakers conduct subcommittee hearings.

Some complain that the effort to provide better talent in offices and committees to ease the legislators' task is not paying off. "Professional" committee aides, especially, are asserting that patronage is dictating many appointments. The truth would be hard to find. It is true that many "politicians" are getting those jobs; but it is also true that when a "politician" handles a legislator's "political" problems, he can devote his attention to what is supposed to be his major job—framing the nation's laws.

Many legislators really are picking able research men to help them—and in general, the high powering of staffs is noticeable.

The agriculture departments decision to support the prices of turkeys is expected to cost the government approximately 28 million dollars before the program expires next June 30.

Officials admit that the government may have to buy ten million pounds of turkeys at 27.9 cents a pound to bring the national price to levels reflecting 90 per cent of parity.

The government also will pay out some 60 million dollars this year to support potato prices.

All told, the various support-price programs are expected to cost around 330 million dollars. The major fight has been on the decision to support egg prices. Some larger producers bitterly oppose the government's program, but it is favored by small producers.

War Assets Administrator Robert M. Littlejohn, who sold the Big and Little Indian pipelines for only $2,500,000 less than they cost the government, took a chance that paid off.

He rejected the original 16 bids as too low; called for new ones. He now confesses that if the second batch had been less favorable than those rejected "I fully expected the president to fire me."

Littlejohn, a former general, says his decision to turn down the first bids in the hope of doing better was similar to a decision he had to make during the "Battle of the Bulge"—"If you're wrong, you're out."

A hitch still may develop. The Justice department could quash the sale to the Texas Eastern Transmission corporation or the Federal Power commission could refuse to grant it a certificate of necessity and convenience.

Senator Joseph McCarthy (R) of Wisconsin, winner in the GOP primary over former Senator Robert M. La Follette, Jr., was a Marine tail-gunner in the war—but he claims he was not much of a marksman.

McCarthy recalls that at one time the men in his company awarded him a "plaque" for destroying "more coconut trees" than anyone else in the South Pacific.

The senator says that when he was called to receive the "plaque," he was served with a formal "summons and complaint" by a big soap manufacturer, whom he owned many of the palm trees in those parts.

However, McCarthy's commanding officer, Maj. Gen. H. R. Harmon, has this to say of him: "His initiative and good judgment, determination and diligence have made him an unusually useful member of the section in which he served and his unflinching good nature and ready wit made him well-liked and respected by his associates."

Those creditous tales of democratic equality under Russian Communism should find interesting reading in an article in the current American magazine detailing the lives of luxury and magnificence lived in the United States by the Soviet official representatives and their families.

"A reliable journalist who has just returned from the Soviet Union," says the American, "reports the millions of Russians are existing on black bread and sauerkraut soup, but their top envoys here live like millionaires, and even the

Views Of The News

By J. C. OESTREICHER
(J. N. S. Foreign Editor)

There were, of course, any number of possibilities. Franco may feel sufficiently sure of himself to let the Monarchists have their own program out into the open in the belief they have nothing concrete to offer. In such a case he may believe the rank and file will stay with him instead of changing horses. It was significant that the manifesto stressed freedom of worship under Franco, a factor of enormous importance to the Spanish people.

Second, he may be flirting with a provisional restoration under which he would function as some sort of regent or royal advisor or "grand old man" of a new Spain.

And then again he might have decided that a genuine turn of sentiment against him has occurred and that his own revolution as a "bulwark against Communism" has become bankrupt.

Of importance in this connection is the growing rapprochement between the Monarchist faction and the Spanish Republican regime in exile. The latter has swung sharply away from the extreme left. Representatives of this faction are openly criticizing the rest for deserting the "cause" and moving closer to the Monarchists.

Spain will require some careful watching in the next few weeks. For any modification of Franco's supposedly modern world and upon the entire future of Europe and South America.

Brotherhood Is Topic Of Panel

Discussion Takes Place At Meeting Thursday Night
In North Street
School

RABBI PAUL KATZ ACTS AS MODERATOR

United Nations Organization is the first decisive step taken by the entire world to insure a world of peace and security, wherein the spirit of "brotherhood" will be instilled in the hearts of all men, regardless of race, color and creed.

This decision was reached by the panel board Thursday evening, the discussion being sponsored by the Good Will Conference in the North Street school.

Brotherhood has been emphasized for the past two weeks. Brotherhood—the spirit of love and kindness between peoples. And with this in the foreground the Good Will Conference devoted the entire panel discussion to the topic of Brotherhood.

Rabbi Katz Moderator

Moderator for the evening's program was Rabbi Paul Katz, of the Tifereth Israel synagogue. Participants on the panel included Mrs. K. H. Beck, Mrs. L. F. Kohn, Thomas Cunningham and Dr. James Gillespie, representing the Protestant, Jewish, Catholic faith, and Negro race.

Each participant gave an opening talk, stating their conception of the idea of "brotherhood" as existing in all men, emphasizing the religion they represented. Democracy rests upon the success of brotherhood. With prayer, faith in your God, and love of our brothers, can this only be achieved.

Varied Answers

Varied answers were received to the question "Can the lack of brotherhood be attributed to the masses or the leaders?" Even the audience participated in this interesting question. To sum up briefly the logical answer is that both are responsible, for the leaders are chosen by the masses. The forces of evil should be suppressed by the forces of good, but in many instances this has not been realized. Brotherhood can not be achieved as if by magic. Hatred and bigotry can grow rapidly and destroy a civilization. Therefore, there must be harmony in the essentials, liberty in the non-essentials and charity to all.

Rev. Jones Presides

Rev. Thomas J. Jones, of the First Congregational church, presided during the evening. The names of other participants were announced by Mrs. Alec Samuels of the Good Will Conference committee. America was the opening song sung by the assembly, and "God Bless America" closed the session. Every month the Good Will Conference will present another panel discussion. Further announcements to this effect will be made.

After 20 years in the U. S. Army a first or master sergeant may retire with a life income of $107 a month, after 30 years with an income of $185 a month.

Good Taste By FRANCES MARKEL

ARE HATS NECESSARY AT WEDDING

"My daughter, who will soon marry at a simply-conducted church wedding, needs your advice on the following question: (1) Must hats be worn by the mothers and guests at an afternoon wedding and at an evening wedding? (2) If the bride wears a long dress, must she wear a hat? If she wears street-length clothes, must she wear a hat? (3) Is it permissible for the bride and her father to go to the altar from a side door rather than walk up the aisle? If not, what do you then suggest? (4) If she walks up the aisle with her father, on what side should she be? Give the procedure, please."

Answer: Yes, hats should always be worn on "dress up" occasions. Wedding guests should always wear hats regardless of the simplicity of the ceremony. And of course, no bride ensemble could be complete without head covering. At a formal evening wedding, requiring evening clothes, hats are not worn. If church rule requires head covering in church, scarfs will do for the purpose.

(2) A hat with a street-length dress always. If she chooses a short or long afternoon dress, a matching feathered or flowered hat would be most attractive. But head covering she must have to "finish" her ensemble. This is a "must" despite the fact that we are living in almost a hatless era.

(3) Yes, this is permissible but does detract from the beauty of the wedding. The bride, even in an informal ceremony, should give her guests an opportunity to see her walk up and down the aisle.

(4) In an informal wedding, there is only one bridal attendant permitted—a maid or matron of honor leads the small procession. The bride follows her, holding her father's arm and then puts her right hand through the groom's left arm. He escorts her to the altar for the ceremony. After they are married, the bride and groom go first down the aisle, she at his right side. They are followed by the best man and the maid-of-honor walking together.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped self-addressed envelopes.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

small fry appear to have unlimited bankrolls and are behaving, generally, like tenement kids turned loose in a candy shop."

The representatives of Soviet democracy, according to the article, have a weakness for vast and palatial homes. One official Russian family has a lease on the one million five hundred thousand dollar Long Island home of the late J. P. Morgan, a forty-eight room house with one hundred sixteen acres of garden and a large private beach. The Soviets are said to have purchased outright for certain envoys the famous "Killenworth" mansion at Glen Cove, Long Island, said to be the most beautiful and luxurious home in America. They have also purchased a forty-five apartment hotel in Manhattan for office purposes. Other leases include the Long Island place of Mrs. Ogden Reid, which Delegate Gromyko is said to use as a retreat from his Hotel Plaza apartment suite.

Members of the Russian households in New York are reported as enjoying an abundance of the finest foods and drinks, while the feminine members show a partiality for furs and raiment.

All in all, it is indicated that the Soviet official contingent in this country are having a pretty good fling under our wicked capitalistic profit system, even while the proletariat at home are critically short of food.

January Traffic Deaths Decrease

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—(INS)—National Safety Council records revealed today that America's traffic deaths in January totaled 2,370—a reduction of 18 per cent from the same month a year ago.

The council predicted that if this reduced pace is maintained for the remainder of the year the 1947 traffic toll will be 31,000 lives as compared with 33,500 in 1946.

However, it pointed out that such an improvement can be expected only if every driver and pedestrian exercises "the same caution and common sense exhibited in January."

Of the 42 states making reports to the council for January, 29 showed decreases, three no change and only 10 reported increases from a year ago.

Legislators Not Fully Informed

Newsman Find Some Members Not Aware Of Full Import Of Bills

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Capitol Hill newsmen have found that legislators sometimes do not know the intent of measures they sponsor. There have been several instances where newsmen have discovered that bills would not accomplish what their sponsors claimed they would. In other instances, it has been found that some measures would make more changes than their authors reported. One such instance was a bill sponsored by Republican Reps. C. C. Smith and M. J. O'Donnell, of Philadelphia, to realign the membership of the house of representatives. The sponsors reported that the bill would reshuffle districts in Philadelphia, Allegheny and Delaware counties.

A careful check by newsmen showed that the measure, which would boost the membership of the lower chamber from 208 to 210, would add one assemblyman in Allegheny, Cumberland, Lehigh and York counties and two additional members in Delaware county. Two posts would be eliminated from Philadelphia county and one each in Cameron and Northampton counties under the bill.

Some Republican leaders have admitted there was little chance of a reapportionment measure being approved by the general assembly at the 1947 session to increase the membership of the house. The last reshuffling of legislative districts occurred in 1921. Some chiefs have claimed that little could be gained through a reapportionment plan at this time. The next general assembly will convene in regular session in 1949, one year before the decennial census. Thus, another change might have to be made in 1951. There has been no clamor among assemblymen for reapportionment districts.

Many assemblymen have expressed the belief that the months of March and April will be the most crucial of the 1947 session. A large number of assemblymen have predicted that since the adjournment would not come before May 15. During March and April, some legislation will be cut and that deliberations in May would be mostly "trimming the edges" on important legislation.

Rep. Earl Chudoff (D) Philadelphia, unsuccessfully attempted to needle Rep. Henry E. Ragot (R) Northampton, during floor debate on the Republican assemblyman's bill to change the method of determining priority of political parties on ballots. The bill, approved by the house, would grant first position to the party receiving the largest number of votes at the last gubernatorial election instead of presidential election. Chudoff, a veteran legislator, asked Ragot, serving an initial term, if he would have introduced the bill if Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, a Republican, had been elected president in 1944 or John S. Rice, a Democrat, governor in 1944. Ragot answered yes, ending the debate.

The retirement of former U. S. Sen. Joseph R. Grundy, of Bristol, as chairman of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, has caused much discussion on Capitol Hill. Many Republican leaders have expressed the belief that the 84-year-old Quaker would continue to wield much influence in formulating C. O. P. policies. Some legislators have predicted, however, that Joseph N. Pew, Jr., Philadelphia financier, may have a greater voice in establishing party policies.

KITCHEN PLANNING CENTER

The kitchen which is planned into definite working centers saves time and labor, according to Miss May Kemp, extension specialist in home management of the Pennsylvania State college. The three main centers are planned around the refrigerator, the sink and the range with counter and storage space adjacent to each.

In addition to these three centers, even the smallest kitchen can boast some type of a center for planning. It may be only a shelf for recipe books hung over a small table. In the larger kitchen a built-in desk with plenty of space for recipes and household accounts and perhaps a few books will serve both as a place to plan and to relax. In this center can be kept pencils, note pads, stationery and labels. A telephone is an added convenience and a small radio makes it possible for the homemaker to tune in her favorite program while she works.

Suggestions in the planning of convenient and cheerful kitchens are given in a circular of Pennsylvania State college entitled "Planning Convenient Kitchens". Copies of this circular may be secured without charge from the Agricultural Extension office, 206 Post Office building, New Castle. This is a good time to make plans for changes which may be made during spring house-cleaning. The average homemaker spends a great many hours in the kitchen every week in the year, and a few new ideas and changes help to add interest and enjoyment to these home duties.

Report Three Poles Have Been Executed

LONDON, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Reuters reported from Warsaw today that Count Kwasiar Grocholski, Dr. Witold Kalicko and Waldemar Baczak—all convicted in the so-called "ambassador spy case"—have been executed.

During the trial, witnesses accused former British Ambassador Victor Cavendish-Bentinck of complicity with members of the Polish underground. He subsequently was transferred to head Britain's embassy in Brazil.

Babson Devotes Attention To Discussion Of Bonds

By ROGER W. BABSON
Copyright, 1947, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.
BABSON PARK, Fla., Feb. 28.—Three weeks ago in this column I discussed the stock market. I gave ten reasons favoring higher prices. This week I will discuss bonds. These bonds may be divided into two major groups, taxable vs non-taxable.

By taxable bonds I have in mind those of established corporations and U. S. government bonds. Nearly all such corporation bond issues now on the market should be safe. They yield from 3 to 5½ per cent according to their marketability. For an investor buying only for income and security, the medium-grade bonds often are better than the low-yielding bonds. Each issue should, however, be judged on its own merits.

All the U. S. governments should be safe. The small investor should buy Series "E" which yield about 3 per cent although you must wait ten years before getting your interest. Large investors buy the "F's" or "G's" which yield 2½ per cent. The interest on these bonds is taxable like the interest from any corporation bond, but the security should be of the highest possible.

I am bearish on non-taxable bonds at this time and this applies to all of the three leading groups as follows:

1. Municipal bonds of our biggest cities such as New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Detroit, etc., are truly risky to hold. Only a world spiritual awakening can prevent World War III. If this War III comes, some of these cities will surely be bombed and their bonds could drop to 50 cents on the dollar over-night. No; I don't want any of these non-taxable bonds.

2. Municipal bonds of small cities which defaulted about 15 years ago and were "re-organized" are risky to buy at present prices. Bonds of many Florida cities are illustrations of this group. These bonds were originally sold at par to pay 5 per cent. Then they defaulted and their prices fell to 20 cents on the dollar or less. Then their interest was scaled down to 1-2-3-4 per cent. Recently, these same bonds have sold at nearly par again. Yet, many of these cities are no better off fundamentally than they were ten years ago. Arcadia, Fla., is not paying her coupons on time and asks for another "reorganization". Probably other Florida cities will make the same demand. This could hurt all municipal bonds which were re-adjusted in the 30's.

3. Municipal bonds of high-grade medium-sized cities which are in a safe locality and have excellent credit should be a sound investment. These bonds should not be fault but, due to the great demand by rich people for "tax exempts", these bonds yield only 1 to 2 per cent. Now, in view of the coming cut in income taxes, rich people will not be so crazy to buy them. Hence, even these best municipals will gradually sell off in price.

What About Taxes?

Investors have lost more money in the long run by trying to save taxes than by paying them. My advice is to buy and sell on merits without thought of taxes. Don't buy questionable securities to save income taxes; don't refrain from taking profits for fear of paying a 25 per cent profits tax.

Certainly in today's market it is better to buy good yielding taxable corporation bonds than to gamble in non-taxables of any group. Of these corporation bonds, I further prefer the industrial bonds of long established companies rather than railroad bonds. Utility bonds are good; but their yield is low and they are liable to be called at any time.

With jet propelled planes, speeds of 500 to 600 miles per hour for passenger planes are predicted in the near future.

BOOK REVIEW
Ladies Missionary society had a good turnout Wednesday night at their annual mission meeting. Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine, of New Castle, speaker, gave an interesting talk and special music was presented by Mrs. George Herbert accompanied by Dorothy Anderson. Mrs. McIlvaine's topic, "India at the Threshold", was given in a most uniquely interesting manner.

WAMPUM NOTES
Mrs. C. V. Marshall, of Bell Vernon, visited her mother, Mrs. Lydia Galbreath, this week.

Mrs. Jack Habbyslaw is confined to her home quite ill.

Mrs. Frank Melike and Miss Pearl Truby were New Castle visitors yesterday.

Mrs. William R. Sanders, Mrs. Mary Cronin and Mrs. Anna Bowers were New Castle shoppers yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Veon were guests of their son and family, the Frank Veon's, of New Castle, Thursday night for 6 o'clock dinner.

Word was received by the Ed Elphie's that a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Griffiths, of Foxboro, Mass. Mrs. Griffiths, a daughter of the Elphie's, who is confined to the hospital at Norwood, Mass., was a former well-known resident here before her marriage. Mrs. Elphie and sister, Miss Elizabeth Moran, will make reservations, via plane, to go to Norwood as soon as tickets can be procured.

Tuesday Dinner To Launch Red Cross Campaign

Louisa Farrand, Veteran ARC Worker, Will Address Gathering At Cathedral

Lawrence County's Red Cross campaign will open next Tuesday evening when workers, local civic and women's club members and others will attend a kick-off dinner at the Cathedral.

The opening is something new in campaign methods. The Kiwanis club proposed a joint civic club meeting for the opening and this was enthusiastically approved by the Red Cross chapter. It should also prove to be an outstanding program for the regular weekly meeting of local service clubs.

Miss Farrand To Speak
 The speaker is Miss Louisa Farrand, a Red Cross worker with outstanding experience before and during the war, and now a member of the public relations staff of the National Red Cross Organization. She is the daughter of the late Dr. Livingston Farrand, former national president of the Red Cross and former president of Cornell University. Miss Farrand has been associated with the Red Cross for many years and spent 42 months in the European theater during the war.

She organized some of the first Red Cross clubs in England and later was in charge of the Antwerp area for four months. During this entire period the area was under fire from V-bombs. She was awarded the Bronze Star for her work in this area.

To Give Fine Talk
 She is an excellent speaker, and this combined with her vast experience assures the workers and club members an exceptionally fine talk. The program also includes several musical numbers by the Consistory quartet and by Mr. George Peacock.

In view of the excellent program, the public generally is invited to attend. Reservations for the dinner can be made at the Chapter House on Beaver street, the price for the dinner being $1.50. It is expected that many people, in addition to workers and civic club members, will attend.

Suggests Sharing Arctic Information With Soviet Russia

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—(INS)—A top-ranking Canadian government official suggested today that the United States and Canada share with Russia information being gathered in potential war areas of the Arctic.

Louis St. Laurent, Canadian minister of external affairs, made the proposal in a speech at the annual Canadian day luncheon of the New York Rotary Club. He said:

"I see no reason why, within the framework of the United Nations, there should not be created facilities for the development of knowledge about northern areas on the widest possible basis."

"I have no hesitation in saying my country would be happy to co-operate in such an enterprise provided it were established upon a proper basis of reciprocity."

"We are already exchanging meteorological information on a reciprocal basis with our Russian neighbors. Why not extend the practice to other useful information?"

May Change Name Of West Virginia

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 28.—(INS)—The West Virginia state legislature has been asked to change the state's name or request Virginia to add "East" to its name.

Delegates Frank A. Knight and William F. Blue recently sponsored a bill proposing the Mountain State change its name.

The delegates said: "West Virginia has many famous men and women, all of whom are without hesitation credited to Virginia. In the far flung corners of the globe strangers expect to find West Virginians in coonskin caps and barefooted—which is typical of a Virginian."

Burial Park Names Officers For Year

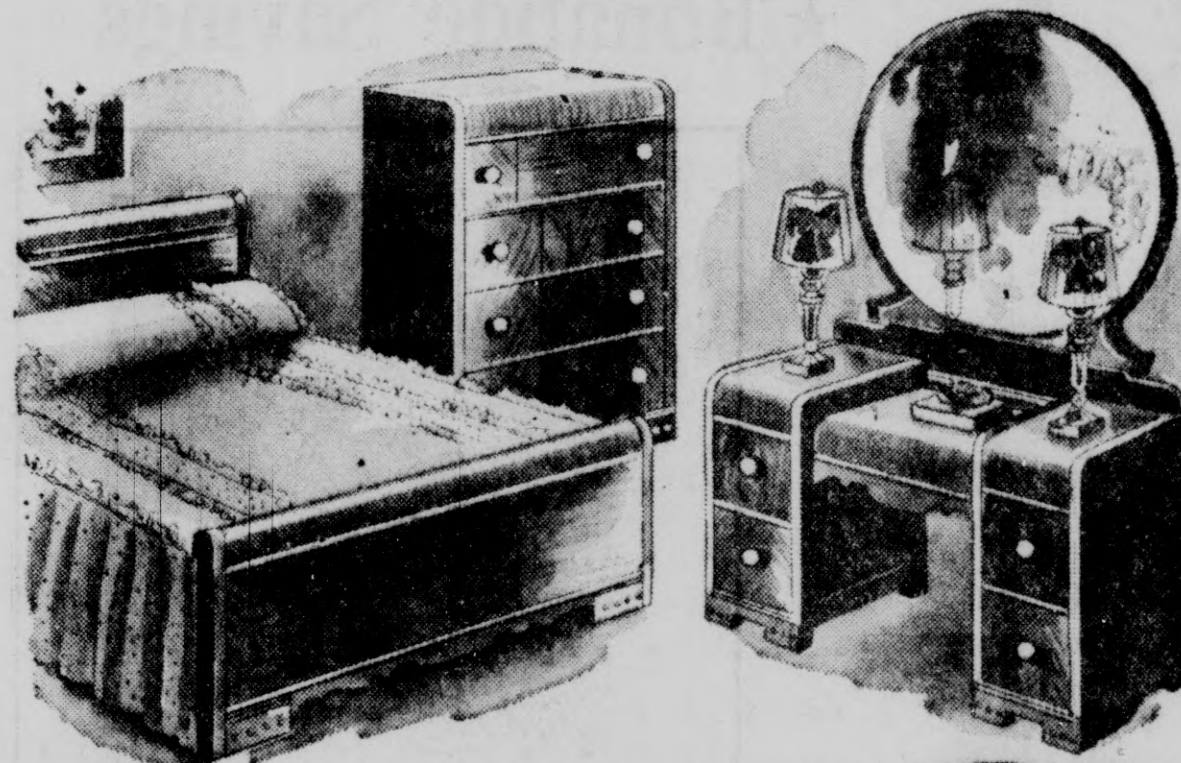

At the annual meeting of the Castle View Burial Park, Inc., John E. Elliott was re-elected president and William Ingels, vice president. Ross D. Rosenberger was re-elected secretary and treasurer. Two directors were named, Attorney Robert McK. White and Welly O. Rush. The board outlined plans for expansion and development in the coming year.

HOW DO YOU MEASURE a Life Insurance Company?

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES can't be measured by any one yardstick, but a number of important questions should be asked.

1. HOW SOUND IS THE COMPANY? Provident Mutual's 82nd annual statement shows that assets rose to $45 million dollars in 1946, an increase of 6%. Legal reserves and other liabilities stand at $11 millions. In addition, special and contingency reserves of 34 millions are available for emergencies and depreciation.

2. IS THE COMPANY PROGRESSING? Insurance in force reached a new all-time high of one billion two hundred million dollars, representing the largest gain in our history. Last year Provident Mutual sold 112 millions of new life insurance, nearly half again as much as in 1945 when new sales were at their highest peak in ten years.

3. DOES IT RENDER GOOD SERVICE? The Provident is a mutual company, run for the benefit of its policy owners. Its agents are carefully selected for character and ability. It pays claims promptly. Death claims, matured endowments, dividends, and other payments, amounting to 27 million dollars were paid last year to policy owners and beneficiaries, bringing the total payments since 1865 to 833 millions.

4. ARE ITS RATES FAIR? Provident Mutual has been noted over the years for economical management and fair dealing to policy owners. It does not operate for profit, but applies its earnings for the benefit of its policy owners. It is known as a company with a low net cost.

5. WHAT DO ITS POLICY OWNERS THINK ABOUT IT? Every year a high proportion of new Provident Mutual life insurance is bought by present policy owners. Last year only 1.3 per cent of insurance in force was allowed to lapse or be surrendered—an excellent record. The average policy of new insurance reached a new high figure of $6508.

For a very successful year, the officers and directors of Provident Mutual express their appreciation to the Company's agents, its employees, and its fine group of policy owners who have made its progress possible.

Need Permit In Future To Get Gas For Heating

Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission has approved regulations to control the adoption of natural gas heating by new users, in order to protect the present gas supply for commercial, industrial and residential customers of The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. in Pennsylvania. It was announced today.

The new regulations become effective tomorrow. These regulations have been made a part of the company's tariffs and apply to all types of existing and new buildings including residential, commercial, industrial and public.

Must File Application

All persons on the lines of The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. who anticipate the installation of natural gas for heating must now file written application. Forms for this purpose will be provided by the gas company. When the application is approved, the company will issue a written permit to allow gas heating equipment to be connected to its gas lines.

The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. suggests that customers can avoid unnecessary expense by securing this permit before purchasing and type of gas heating equipment.

Special installations of gas heating equipment be made without obtaining the necessary permit, the gas company will serve a ten days notice that all gas service to the customer will be discontinued until the heating equipment is disconnected, it is announced.

Medical cases will have top priority for approval of permit applications covering equipment in new structures designed to use gas with gas-fired boilers, furnaces and unit heaters.

Deny Reports Of Korea Fighting

SEOUL, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Rumors of fighting between American and Russian troops along the 38th parallel, which marks the boundary between the U. S. and Soviet occupation zones in Korea, were denied officially today by American occupation authorities.

A top-bracket spokesman for the U. S. Army occupying the southern half of Korea indicated that the Tokyo-circulated rumors of American-Russian exchanges of gunfire might have arisen from two relatively minor incidents along the "iron curtain dividing line" in Korea.

The spokesman characterized as "untrue" the report that U. S. and Red Army troops had fired on one another.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Irrepressible Victor Mature leaves Sunday for two months of picture making around New York City. Two weeks of the time will be spent on location in Sing Sing prison for a rip-roaring 20th Century-Fox epic called "Kiss of Death".

Said Vic: "When I was a kid some of my pals used to predict I'd end up in jail. Well, I'm finally landing there, but at what a nice salary."

The old Toms and other points famous in Gotham's criminal history will be used in making the picture. Brian Donlevy will be the district attorney and the two women in Vic's screen life will be Pat Morrison and Colin Grey.

Vic expects to be back in Hollywood early in May. The town won't be the same without him.

It turns out that Leo Durocher didn't forget the cast and crew of Laraine Day's new RKO picture, "Tycoon," when he departed for the East for spring training of his Brooklyn Dodgers.

He sent them all baseball caps. As you'd expect, they were Brooklyn Dodgers caps, except for two. Lippy never was able to win Stephen Ames, producer of the picture, and Eddie Killy, the associate producer, over on his side.

Killy is a St. Louis fan, so Leo gave him a Cardinal cap, and Stephen got a N. Y. Yankee cap. If you walk on the set it looks like the Dodge training camp.

Laraine was wearing a very form-fitting negligee. She wasn't wearing a cap.

Joan Davis is a very tired lady.

For the first time since "If You Knew Susie" started six weeks ago your reporter found her sitting in a chair.

She said: "This is the first moment I've had to rest since the picture started."

She said she hasn't made any new picture commitments.

"My radio show keeps me pretty busy and doing a picture at the same time makes it very difficult," Joan said, "I think I'll take a good rest when I finish this one."

More than 192,000,000 pounds of corn starch were used in 1945 in filling or "sizing" for paper in the United States.

Story Hour Continues At Public Library

"Wheezles", "Sir Brian", "Seven at a Stroke" and "Pinnocchio" were the fairy tales that held the attention of the boys and girls at the weekly story hour at the Free Public Library Thursday afternoon.

Narrator for story hour is the librarian of the library, Mrs. Walter McKee, who relates the tales in her most charming and interesting manner. Thus a large crowd of youngsters make their way to the assembly room weekly for more stories.

Mrs. McKee is making a tour of the city schools and will visit Oak Street today to invite them to story hour.

Youthful Slayers At Youngstown May Know Fate Today

YOUNGSTOWN, Feb. 28.—Don Frohner and Arthur Ned Chapman, slayers of William C. Speltz, salesman, on January 13, may know their fate today.

The last of the defense counsel's witnesses were heard on Thursday afternoon, with the defense attorneys putting the blame for the crime on the public in general. Parental delinquency was blamed for many juvenile offenses committed these days.

Parents of both of the boys admitted their guilt in the boys' delinquency, due to the break down of home life.

The Stars and Stripes was first authorized as the American flag by act of Congress, June 14, 1777.

SEE HEAVY TRAVEL

HARRISBURG, Feb. 28.—(INS)—
One of "the biggest travel years in history" was predicted for 1947 today by R. B. Maxwell of Harrisburg, secretary-treasurer of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation.

"Motor car travel figures this year probably will exceed anything heretofore recorded," he declared.

He urged careful planning "to meet the many problems which the traveling public is facing today."

Since the dawn of history, infectious diseases have spread along the trade routes of the world whatever the mode and speed of transport.

Expect Approval Of U. S. Proposal On Bomb Action

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Feb. 28.—
The United Nations Security Council's approval of the American proposal to send the Baruch atom control plan back to the atomic energy commission is foreshadowed in today's session at Lake Success.

Advance indications are that a majority vote in favor of the United States resolution is certain, provided that debate tactics do not intervene to delay such a decision.

The council's recourse to the proposal as laid down by Chief American Representative Warren R. Austin would forestall any veto in the near future of the atomic energy commission's report. In present circumstances, this veto was virtually certain through the pronounced opposition to the Baruch plan displayed by Soviet Russia.

Bonus For Mercer School Teachers May Go To Court

MERCER, Pa., Feb. 28.—(INS)— School teachers of Mercer may not get their $200 bonus after all.

Attorney J. A. Stranahan today told the board of education, which recently granted the bonus, he does not believe it can be proved an emergency exists if it (the board) asks for a court ruling.

Under the state school code a school board must show "an emergency" does exist before it can pay out funds not included in its budget, Stranahan said.

Carl F. Joseph Dies At Miami

ther, Carl F. Joseph, aged 59, who Florida.

Mr. Joseph formerly resided in Pittsburgh and Youngstown, but was well known here due to his many visits in the city.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Joseph, a son, Dale, and a sister, Mrs. B. F. Douglass, of Alburquerque, New Mexico, in addition to his brother here.

GOP Leaders Seek Convention Site

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Both
Chicago and Atlantic City, N. J., were given consideration today by Republican leaders as sites for the 1948 national GOP convention.
Werner Schroeder, Illinois Republican national committeeman, said that Carroll Reece, chairman of the party's national committee, has called a subcommittee meeting in Chicago for March 10.

Schroeder said discussion of a 1948 convention site will form the main item of business. He added:
"Apparently the choice has narrowed down to Chicago and Atlantic City."

BOY IS FOUND DEAD

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28.—(INS)—
Ralph Tartaglione, junior high school student in suburban Swiss-vale, was dead today, a victim of strangulation.
Deputy Coroner Fred Weihsen said the boy, who would have been 14 Monday, last night was found standing on the edge of a bathtub in his home, his chin in a towel that had two knots in it and which had been thrown over a towel rack.
Weihsen said there was no reason to suspect suicide. He added the boy might have been chinning himself with the towel.

Stirring Addresses Being Delivered At Revival Meetings

'Repent Or Perish' Theme Of Dr. R. J. Wells At First Methodist Church This Evening

First Methodist church at North Jefferson and North streets was packed to capacity on Thursday evening as the audience heard Dr. R. J. Wells of Wheaton, Ill., deliver one of the most powerful addresses in his series at the city-wide revival campaign in progress there.

Dr. Wells used as his text, "The Heart is Deceitful and Above All Things Deceitfully Wicked" portraying concrete examples of serious crimes that were committed showing that the motive for the sins emanated from the heart.

An unusually well balanced musical program was presented on Thursday evening when the girls quintet of Minneapolis moved the great audience with their singing. Forrest Schickedanz led the choir in singing a very appealing selection.

"Repent or Perish" has been chosen by Evangelist Wells for his subject this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Preceding the meeting, at 7 o'clock, the prayer group will assemble to pray for the success of the meetings.

Saturday morning, at 10:30 o'clock in the First Baptist church, a program has been arranged for the children of the city, when the entire party will be on the platform. A motion picture will be shown, the quintet and Mr. Schickedanz will sing, with Dr. Wells concluding the program with a short Gospel address adapted to youth.

Saturday evening, the address of Dr. Wells, "From Silken Sheets to Flames of Fire" will be directed to youth.

The local Youth for Christ will join in with the campaign. The revival will continue in the church with two services Sunday, at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. On Monday evening, which will be Sunday school night, the meetings will move to the Cathedral for that one night due to the inability of First Methodist church to hold the anticipated crowd.

Buffalo School Teachers' Strike Still In Progress

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 28.—(INS)—Leaders of the Buffalo teachers strike which has closed all of the city's public schools, were prepared today to carry on their strike until their pay demands are assured.

Hopes to settle the strike so the 71,000 children involved could return to classes Monday faded when Raymond J. Ast, president of the Buffalo Teachers Federation, rescinded an earlier statement that the salary report of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's special committee on education would be acceptable to the striking teachers.

There are very few savage people who leave their ears totally unmutilated. Both the ear lobes are commonly pierced. This is usually done during childhood and a small piece of wood is inserted into the wound, which is left to heal. Later this block of wood is removed and a larger one inserted and so on, the operation being continued until the hole is the required size. In Borneo and East Africa are to be found the greatest distortions of the ears.

Free Enterprise Will Show Gains

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28.—(INS)—
An economic set-up where free enterprise will rule and the government will take over only where private business cannot serve the people was predicted for the nation by Dr. E. G. Nourse, economist, on Thursday.

Dr. Nourse, chairman of economic advisers to President Truman and vice president of the Brookings Institution, said in a talk before the institute on private enterprise at the University of Pittsburgh:

"In a surprisingly large number of economic functions we have organized parallel lines of private and public activity.

"It is nonsense to say that we had any consistent or rational policy, or economic or social theory in these matters.

"In the future, free enterprise will more and more hold sway, while government in business will become less of an economic factor."

Officially speaking, the United States consists of 44 states and four commonwealths, the commonwealths being Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Kentucky.
State and commonwealth have about the same meaning, although originally commonwealth suggested more of self-government than state.

What's smart for '47? BUICK!

THAT grille's as fresh and fashion-worthy as a Paris label in a new bonnet.

That long, clean, sweeping-all-the-way-through fender line is as much a "must" with the style-wise as white tie with tails.

There's the sparkle of bright, fresh colors—the rich sheen of chaste chrome—the sleek, slick, able look of an express cruiser, shined and polished for Regatta Day.

But is this the only way in which Buick's smart? Not by a barrelful!

Look at the engine room in that bonnet—that means torrents of Fireball power to put the lift of a lifetime in every mile.

That hug-the-road look means steadiness always—and cushiony coil springs on all four wheels spell serene disregard of any road's rude jolts.

Look at the width amidships that gives you lolling room both front and back—and at push-button controls that not only raise and lower the top, but move door windows up and down and the front seat back and forth.

And look deeper. At engines so fine-made they keep their new-car liveliness seemingly forever. At stout metals and sturdy underpinning, at husky, curl-around bumpers, controls light as a ladyfinger; at wheels that curb heel-over on turns, and brakes both easy and sure.

Fact is, in this trim Convertible or any of the eight other body types, Buick's the smartest buy as well as '47's smartest car. It's the place where dollar-sense meets with style-sense to produce America's most wanted automobile.

Such being so—why hesitate? A day lost now in placing an order can be a week lost later in taking delivery, so—get your order in now!

San Diego Aqueduct Expenditure Being Investigated Now

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(INS)—
The general accounting office opened its battle to prove that administrative agencies of the government circumvented congress in wartime expenditures under general provisions of wartime emergency laws.

Specifically, the GAO charges that the navy acted illegally in starting and continuing work on a 15 million dollar aqueduct for the city of San Diego, Calif.

GAO attorneys were scheduled to appear before the senate committee on executive expenditures to press the charge that the secretary of the navy had no authority under war powers acts to construct the aqueduct—now 70 per cent completed at a cost of 10 million.

Chairman Aiken (R) Vt., said there was no doubt but what the aqueduct could be completed, especially since previous witnesses testified as to the need of the project.
In addition, the city of San Diego has arranged to reimburse the navy at a rate of $500,000 per year for 30 years.

and if so, what legislative steps could be taken to rectify the situation and allow completion of the project.

Returning Crew Finds Weather Colder Than Polar

QUONSET, R. I., Feb. 28.—(INS)—Officers and men of the aircraft Philippine Sea came home from a 19 thousand mile cruise to the south pole and shivered today in temperatures lower than they encountered in the Antarctic.

Capt. D. S. Cornwell, skipper of the carrier, told newsmen the lowest temperatures encountered in the south polar regions were 29 and 30 degrees above freezing. He said: "We're really coming back to colder weather. Of course, I don't want to say anything against New England weather, but I might point out it was the middle of summer down there and the lowest temperature was 29 or 30 above."

Aviation Metallsmith Fred Peterson of Dorchester said the trip to the Antarctic was "a cinch" compared to the Arctic regions. A dramatic story of his rescue and return home after an airplane crash with the Byrd Antarctic expedition was told by Lt. Ralph P. Leblanc, 26, of St. Martinsville, La. He lost both legs as a result of the crash.

Lt. Leblanc's trip home required two months in which he travelled by dog sled, destroyer and aircraft-carrier.

More Veterans Get Federal Jobs

C. D. Hertzog, regional director, Third U. S. Civil Service Region today released the report for the month of January, 1947 showing the placement of 1640 veterans in federal positions in this region, of which 1627 were in Pennsylvania and 13 in Delaware.

The Veterans Administration gave employment to 624, of which number 230 were ten point preference veterans. The Navy department was the second largest employer with 271, of which 25 were entitled to disability preference. Mr. Hertzog drew attention in his report to the fact that of those hired 350 had disability preference which shows the federal agencies are following the recommendation of the president in giving every consideration to those veterans who suffered injuries during their service in the armed forces.

FALSE ALARM
Three fire companies were called to the corner of Friendship street and Cunningham avenue at 3:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon by an alarm from Box 515 but firemen were unable to find any fire in that vicinity on arrival.

Wampum High Meets Leetsdale Tonight In W. P. I. A. L. Tourney

Indians Clash With Spartans At New Brighton

Hennon Passers Face Stern Test In Initial Pairing Against Section XI Champs

Coach Butler Hennon will send his Section XXI champions against Leetsdale high, winners of the Section XI honors, tonight at the New Brighton floor in the first round eliminations of the WPIAL tournament.

The Redskins, who finished their season with 11 wins and one loss, will be going against rugged opposition in the Spartans, who copped 11 and lost three in a tough loop.

The valleyites are coached by Bob McCormick, in his third year as mentor, and have racked up seven championships in the past. The last time the valley school took the toga was in 1942-43 but from 1930 to 1933 they walked off with the cup five times running.

Veteran Array
McCormick has a veteran array to hurl against the Indians. His chief threats are Bill Rodwick and William Robinson, the latter a colored flash. Both lads are seniors and deadly shots, Rodwick holding a guard spot and Robinson manning a forward post.

The other guard is Mike Poninsky, who plays the pivot. Leo Scimla, ace play-maker and accurate shot, is Robinson's running mate. The center post is a toss-up between Johnny Yakopovic and Charles Veloski, the former a senior and the latter a junior.

Cinch Title Feb. 18
The Spartans clinched their title February 18 when they whipped Bellevue, but closed out the season with a loss to Sewickley, 38-34. Over the season they won 17 and lost five.

The McCormick-coached lads are reported to be big and rugged physically, and artists at grabbing rebounds. They usually start slowly and gather momentum as the contest progresses.

Wampum Lineup Set
Hennon will stick to the same lineup that finished the season with a win over New Wilmington. Dave Kanagy and "Chuck" Badger will be at the forwards, Ray Jackson at center, with Frankie Procopio and Ed McMillen sharing the guards. A substantial following of Wampum and county fans are expected to follow the Section XXI champs into the valley for their test and are rooting for them to steam past the Spartans. Should they win, their next test would be against the winner of the E. Washington-Findlay game, to be played March 7 at Dormont high school in Pittsburgh.

Game time is set for 8 p. m. Lineups for tonight's game:

Purdue-Indiana Schedule Battle At Butler Floor

Purdue Fieldhouse Sealed Up Pending Investigation Into Fatal Bleacher Collapse

Fieldhouse Sealed
The Butlermaker fieldhouse has been sealed pending investigation of the collapse last Monday night of temporary bleachers.

Three persons were fatally injured and an estimated 200 others hurt in the crash.

The collapse came at half-time of an important contest with league-leading Wisconsin. Purdue was ahead 34 to 33 when the tragedy occurred.

Plans for a replay of the cancelled Badger-Boilermaker game still were incomplete.

Kramer Favored To Win Indoor Title

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—(INS)—Jack Kramer, national champion and Davis Cupper, was established as a firm favorite as the National Indoor Tennis Championships opened in New York's Seventh Regiment Armory.

Kramer headed the seedings and was followed by Billy Talbert, Bob Falkenberg, Sidney B. Wood, Frank Shields and Elwood Cooke.

Notable absentees from the pairings are Pancho Segura, the defending champion, and Ted Schroeder, ranked No. 2 nationally as a result of his team-work with Kramer in beating Australia for the Davis Cup.

Lesnevich-Fox Battle Tonight

Light Heavyweight Champion Underdog In Betting For Scrap Tonight, In Garden

By PAT ROBINSON
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—A champion of the world will be a 3 to 1 underdog in Madison Square Garden tonight.

The champion is Gus Lesnevich, veteran light heavyweight king, who is laying his title on the line in a 15-round bout with young Billy Fox of Philadelphia.

The fight mob thinks those 3 to 1 odds against Lesnevich is the biggest overlay since David bowled over Goliath.

These odds, of course, are based on the fact that Fox has knocked out 43 opponents in 43 professional fights. But most of his victims were lads who couldn't fight their way out of a paper bag.

Tonight Fox will be meeting a seasoned veteran who has whipped the best light heavyweights in the world and not a few of the heavyweights.

Here is a game champion who can take it and who has a pretty fair punch of his own and immeasurably more cleverness than the challenger.

Fox is easy to hit with either hand and it remains to be seen how he will react when Lesnevich shoots a right under the heart and swings a left hook to the jaw.

COUNTLESS stories have been written about Rube Waddell, baseball's eccentric hurler, but do you know that there is in this city, a former pitcher, who defeated Waddell five out of seven games? He is Bill Hodgkinson, local tailor, who enjoyed a run of phenomenal success for several years with Butler, Dayton and other teams, and who was given a contract by the Boston Nationals but never signed it. Bill got his start at Brookville when Alex Whitehill, Detroit pitcher, and Bunker Ryan, Cincinnati hurler, trained in a heated barn there. Bunker told Hodgkinson to "whip it with your wrist", which he did, and the next season he struck out 75 batters. Hodgkinson whipped the ball at the batter, delivering for right hand hitters, two inches below the waistline on the inside corner, and for left hand hitters, he put the ball just above the batter's knee, on the outside corner. "I think the old-time pitchers have a barrel of knowledge which could be utilized by young pitchers, many of them have just as much stuff as anyone in the big leagues, but don't know how to use it, in fast company," Bill asserted today. In 1896, Hodgkinson signed with Patterson, N. J., but was released. He later signed with Butler for $35 a month. However, Guy Heckert, then with Oil City, wanted Bill, so Butler had to raise his salary to $175, which he received for two years. Talking of Waddell, Hodgkinson stated: "Rube was a nice fellow. He wasn't as radical as some would have you believe. However, I beat him five out of seven games. One of the games was at Conneaut Lake and the others were at Butler."

Many years after the Conneaut Lake game, he was in an attorney's office here when the game came up and Dr. Samuel E. Gamble, former local minister, who was in the grandstand at the lake that day, recalled everything that occurred during the game. Upon another occasion he pitched against Lawrenceville. While batting he received a signal for a squeeze play. He bunted between third and the pitcher's box. The pitcher threw the ball to the first baseman. It hit the pitcher's glove and bounded against Hodgkinson's head, knocking him out. "When I went out to pitch I drew a Chautauqua cheer from 3,500 ladies, who were at the game," he stated, then explained that the Chautauqua cheer was the fluttering of vari-colored handkerchiefs which the women carried in those days. While at Butler he pitched against Wilmerding, turning in a no run, no hit game. The score was 8 to 0. He also recalled that in his first year with Butler he won 13 consecutive games, and in the year following, 1897, pitched better ball against faster company. Mr. Hodgkinson came to New Castle, helped to organize twilight baseball, and in a game with Bill Andrews playing shortstop, told Andrews: "I'm going to make them all hit to you today." And he did. Andrews got 16 of 17 chances that day. "How did you do it?" he was asked. "I just threw the ball over the handle of the bat" he replied. Again referring to young pitchers, he said: "They must have control and get them over the corners. A curve ball is as easy to hit as a fast ball."

George Sheppard, manager of Tiger Jack Biddle, telegraphs from West Palm Beach, Fla., that Biddle who broke his hand knocking out Irving Marcus, is out of a hospital and will be out of boxing for eight weeks. "The broken hand cost him a probable bout with Rocky Graziano," the telegram stated. Representative Harold G. Westcott, (R—Susquehanna County) is sponsoring a bill to permit fox hunting at any time. So far, nearly 20 bills have been introduced in the state assembly, nearly half of which would boost fishing and hunting license fees.

The state fish commissioner reports that the big-mouthed lamprey which is destroying fish in the Great Lakes "is no menace at this time" to commercial fishers at Erie. It is an eel-like "monster" which attaches itself to other fish and devours all or part of its victim. . . . Fifteen hundred are expected to be in the Ligonier fox hunt March 6. . . . Babe Didrikson Zaharias, nationally known women's golf champion and Peggy Kirk, Findlay, O., won the women's international four-ball tournament at Hollywood, Fla., beating Louise Suggs, Lithia Springs, Ga., and Jean Hopkins, Lakewood, O., 3 and 2, in an 18-hole play-off round.
